Giles Travel

Working as an extension of our clients' own organisations, Giles Travel provide an integrated solution for business travel management; delivered with an emphasis on the personal touch from our team of highly experienced Travel Consultant... we think the best in the business.

We're ranked in the Top 30 UK Travel Management Companies and enjoy Advantage consortium membership and Lufthansa City Centre affiliation, meaning we're always able to punch above our weight with a truly global reach and buying power of over £500m. This power ensures the very best rates for our clients to compliment best-in-class service delivery across air, hotel, rail and corporate group incentive programmes.

Our focus on providing a personal service is backed up by bespoke state-of-the-art technology solutions; from G-Connect, our award winning online self-booking system, to G-Focus for up to the minute real-time travel trend reporting and analysis. G-Safe delivers robust corporate social responsibility and ensures that we always know where our clients' travellers are in the world, while G-News delivers the very latest travel business information direct to your desktop as it happens.

We enjoy partnership relationships with clients from a wide range of industries and sizes. These including high street names such as Mothercare plc, Monsoon Accessorise and Callaway Golf through to international corporations, such as SAIC Motors, RPS and Ricardo Group to small start-up companies.

World by Design

Welcome to World by Design, provider of exclusive tailor made leisure travel services designed with you in mind.

Professionalism, experience and attention to detail are the hallmarks of our company, delivered with a personal touch synonymous with the impeccable levels of service you would expect from a leading travel company.

We offer only the finest tailored holiday solutions, from the world's most luxurious hotels and resorts, to private island retreats, air and yacht chartering, spa retreats, safari encounters, cruises, chic city breaks and fine dining experiences. Our complete concierge services ensure that every detail of your holiday is planned in advance, from pre-arranged restaurant and spa reservations to on arrival baby boxes, we leave no detail unchecked so you can relax and simply enjoy the experiences of our design.

In addition, our Travel Specialists are on hand to provide meetings, incentive, conference and events services to meet any corporate needs in this arena.

For wherever you want to be in the world... World by Design.
