

G-TRACK

Online Booking Tool for Rail

G-Track, powered by Evolvi, is Giles Travel's corporate online rail system which also incorporates CO2 emission details as well as single and return fare comparisons. Customers using the system find it easy to book cost effective fares and are making savings of up to 60% by booking well in advance of the travel date.

- Easy to use web-based product which can be used to research routes, book tickets, and make seat reservations.
- Easy to implement at no cost with internet access the only requirement.

- Weekly invoicing through Giles Travel arranged with no requirement for a credit card to pay for tickets.
- Management Information Reports are readily available to measure spend/trends.
- Specific corporate rail policy can be built in to G-Track at no added cost together with authorised users and order number/cost centre fields.
- Ticket on Departures (TOD) available.
- Booking fees from £2 (postage cost not included if not a TOD)
- Desk top ticket printers or walk up touch screen kiosks can be installed at an extra cost.
